Dear Senator Bush:

Mr. Dulles did not get to see your letter of 8 June before he left the City.

It was thoughtful of you to bring the HARTFORD
COURANT editorial and Donald McLachlan's article to our attention.

Sincerely,

Honorable Prescott Bush
United States Senate
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Senator Bush:

I have your letter of 8 June to Mr. Dulles forwarding the editorial page of the HARTFORD COURANT of 15 May which contained the reprint of Donald McLachlan's "Their Man in Adams", as well as the editorial "Being Intelligent About Intelligence".

Mr. Dulles did not see your letter prior to his departure from the city but I am sure he will be interested in both your letter and the other material when he returns.

Having previously served as Director of Intelligence in the Air Force, I found the COURANT editorial most interesting.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
General, USAF
Acting Director
